We are seeking a socially and environmentally conscious person who is a strong communicator and demonstrates a positive attitude, flexibility, enthusiasm and has a passion for helping others and the community. This position will report directly to the Executive Director and will assist the Outreach Assistant in developing a social media strategy to assist in outreach for events and campaigns. This position requires excellent communication and time management skills and the ability to navigate multiple social media platforms. If you feel that you have what this job requires, send us a resume and a detailed explanation of why this position is for you!

Responsibilities:

- Assist in drafting messaging and visual media including images and video for our social media platforms
- Attend special community events to assist and document community outreach
- Find creative ways to engage the community and promote events across platforms
- Other associated tasks as needed

Preferred Qualifications:

- Working toward an Associate or Bachelors Degree in Communication, Multimedia, Graphic Design, Public Relations, or an associated major
- Ability to work independently, meet deadlines, and quickly learn PPT's outreach strategy as it pertains to the overall goals of the organization
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Proficient in Google Drive and online collaboration
- Weekday evening and weekend availability one to two nights/weekends per month to attend events

PPT offers a supportive and flexible working environment with telecommunication available. PPT will work with the selected candidate's educational institution to meet credit or community service requirements.

How to Apply:

Qualified applicants should send a cover letter and resume to Gillian Graber, Executive Director, at gillian@protectpt.org. PPT strongly encourages people of color, women, LGBTQ individuals, and those with disabilities to apply.
